PREFACE.

In this intensely busy age, intelligent and industrious people of all classes constantly feel the need of reliable books of reference, containing in compact form useful facts and items of information upon those thousand and one questions which are constantly coming up. Such information is too often to be had only by tedious and laborious research in ponderous encyclopædias and blue-books. These are not generally accessible, and if they were few have either time or inclination to cull out from so great a mass the particular items of which they are in search. To meet this want is the object of the present volume. In it the people of Ontario and of the Dominion will find reliable and carefully arranged information in regard to almost every fact of interest or importance relating to the Province or Dominion. The History, Population, Religious Beliefs, Constitution, Parliament, Legislatures, Laws, Educational Systems, Climate, Resources, Industries, &c., are all in turn described, and in most cases the facts are illustrated with carefully prepared and expensive colored diagrams, in order that they may be impressed upon the memory through the medium of the eye as well as of the ear. The Compendium of General Information will be found a storehouse of useful and interesting facts for the teacher and the pupil, the man of business and the man of leisure, the artisan, the farmer and the housekeeper. The new and reliable Maps of the Counties of Ontario, and of the Provinces of Manitoba and Quebec, have been prepared at great expense and will not fail to be appreciated by people of every class.

In a word, the book will, it is hoped, be found to be just what every intelligent citizen, whatever his occupation, needs to have always within easy reach, and to which he will constantly resort for the helpful information he is sure to find in its pages.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The settlement of Ontario dates from the close of the Revolutionary War in 1773. Prior to that date there were not, probably, more than two or three thousand white settlers within the bounds of what is now the Province. Immediately after the close of the war the British Government caused surveys to be made of the lands along the shore of the upper St. Lawrence. Here a place of refuge was provided for the United Empire Loyalists. To each refugee a free grant of 200 acres of land was made; also gifts of food, clothing, simple agricultural implements, etc. The number of these settlers was speedily augmented by disbanded soldiers and half-pay officers, and by immigrants from Great Britain. To these also liberal land grants were made.

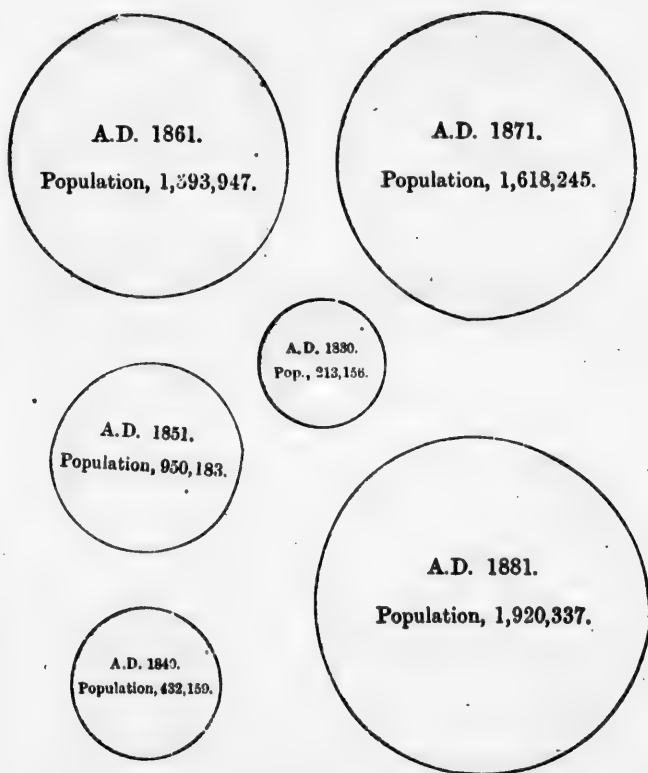

It is estimated that about ten thousand persons made their homes in "Upper Canada," as it was then called, in 1774. Thriving settlements sprang up in various localities. The rich soil began to bring forth abundant harvests. Zealous missionaries threaded their way from settlement to settlement, through the dark mazes of the forests. The growth of the new colony was steady and rapid.

Upper Canada was at first governed as a crown colony. The whole country was divided into four districts, each having a sheriff and a judge appointed by the Imperial authorities. In response to a demand which soon sprang up for a constitutional government, a new constitution was granted in 1792. Under this the Province had a Legislative Council appointed by the Crown, and a Legislative Assembly elected by the people. The Council consisted at first of seven, the Assembly of sixteen members. The first seat of Government was located at Newark, a village at the mouth of the Niagara River. It was removed by Governor Simcoe, in 1795, to York, now Toronto. York in that year could boast of about a dozen houses besides the barracks.

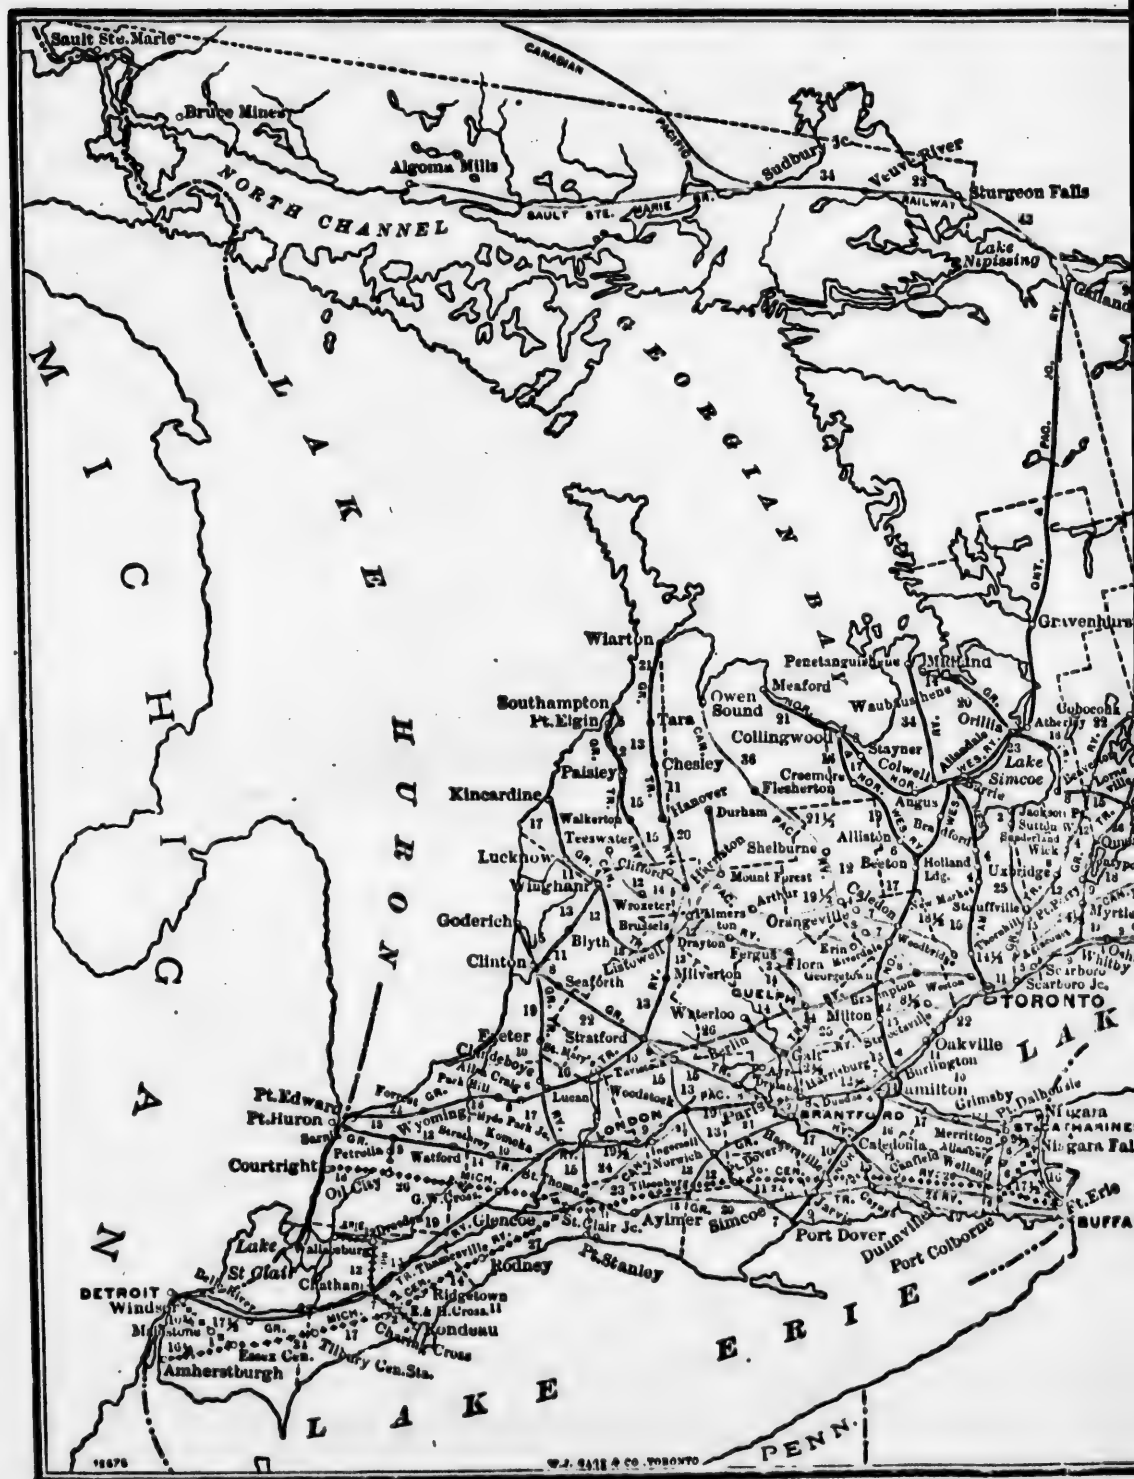

In 1841 Upper Canada was united to Lower Canada, the whole becoming the Province of Canada, and having a single Legislative Council and Assembly. Kingston was at first chosen as the Capital, but in 1843 the seat of government was removed to Montreal. In 1867 the union was, by mutual consent, dissolved, and the two original provinces were incorporated into the Dominion of Canada, Upper Canada becoming the Province of Ontario, Lower Canada the Province of Quebec.

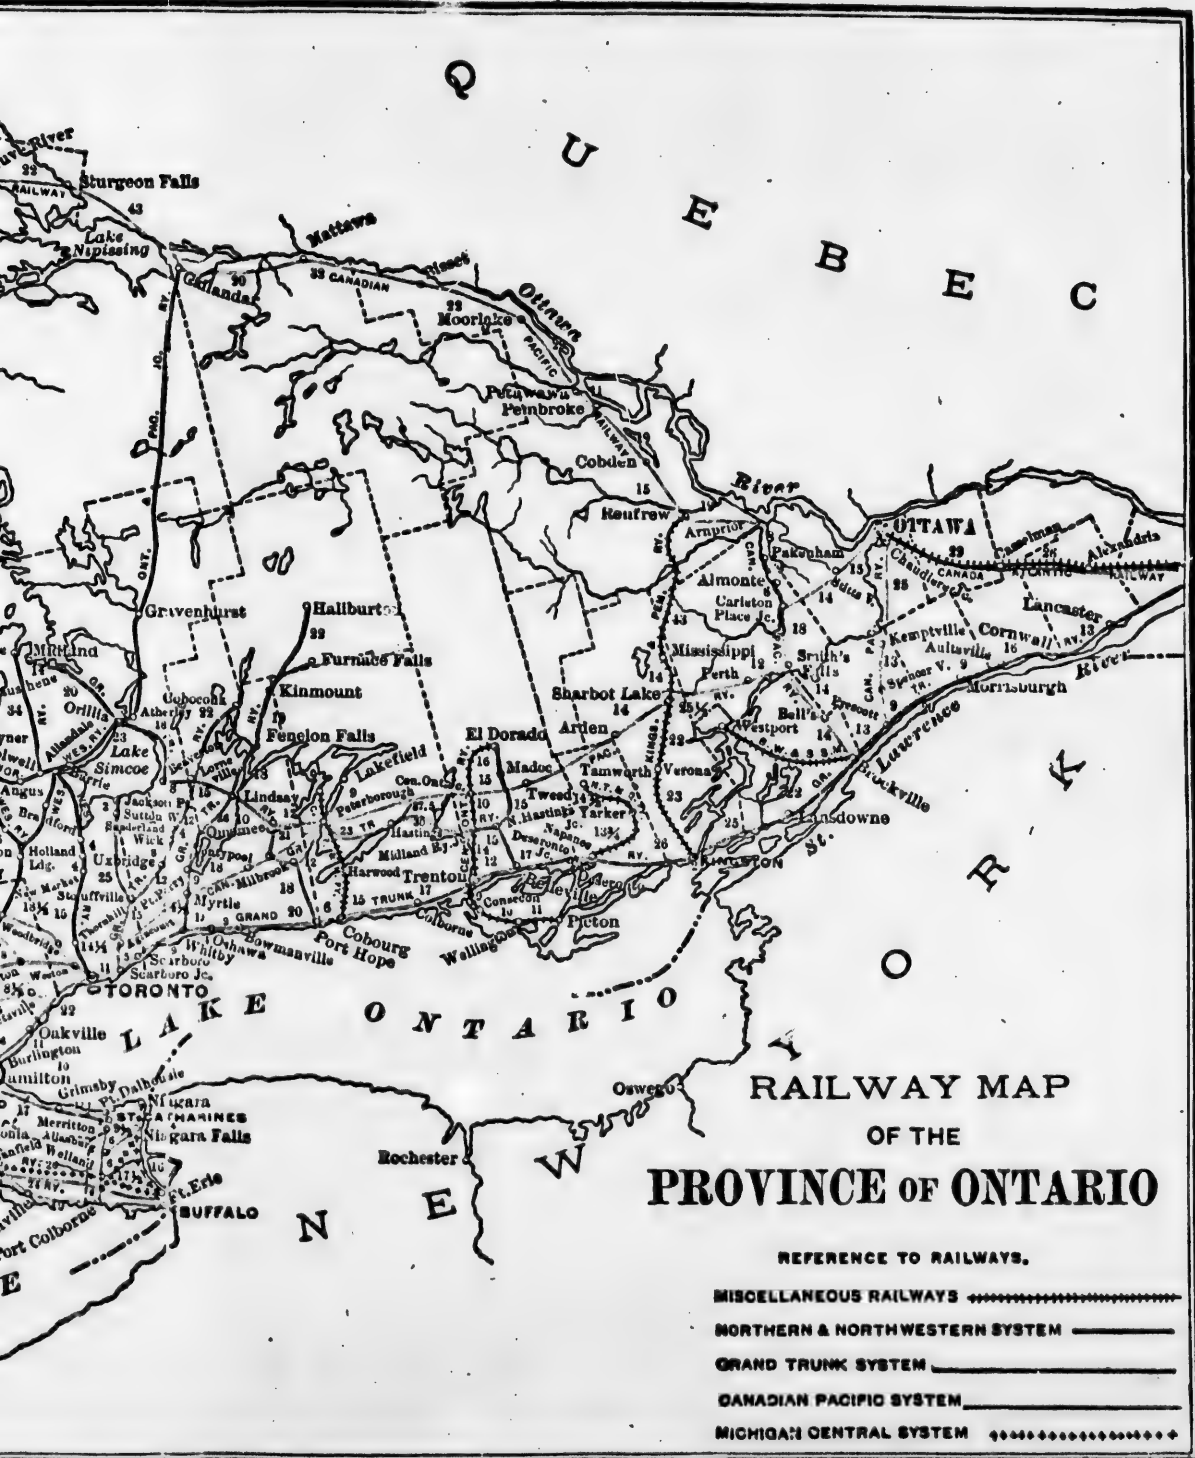

Apart from political struggles the history of Ontario has not been wholly uneventful. As Upper Canada it formed the objective point of the American army during the war of 1812. It was repeatedly invaded. The battles of Queenston Heights, Stony Creek, Lundy's Lane, and several others were fought within its borders. A long and bitter struggle for responsible government culminated in the "Rebellion" of 1837, which was the precursor of the "Union Act" of 1841. The Fenian Raids of 1866, though of slight importance as military demonstrations, created a good deal of excitement in the Province by reason of their unprovoked character and the loss of several Canadian volunteers, who fell in a skirmish at Ridgeway.

The following diagram illustrates the growth of Population in Ontario during the fifty years ending with 1881. The figures for 1830 and 1840 are according to the Assessment Returns of the Municipal Corporations; the others according to the Dominion Census Reports.

BOUNDARIES OF THE PROVINCE.

Ontario is by far the wealthiest and most populous province of the Dominion. Until the recent termination of the "Boundary Dispute" with the Manitoban and Dominion Governments, the western and northern boundaries of the Province were undetermined. The matter has now probably been set at rest by the report of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to which the question was finally referred. The terms of that report are somewhat technical, and the boundary approved is rendered more difficult to trace by the recurrence of certain geographical names which are not to be found on recent maps. There can be little doubt, however, as to the general effect of the finding of the Committee, and the boundaries of Ontario may now be given as follows:—On the North-East, Lake Temiscamingue and the Ottawa River; South-East, Lakes Ontario and Erie, and the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Rivers; South-West, Lakes St. Clair, Huron, Superior, Rainy, and Lake of the Woods, and Rivers Detroit, St. Clair, St. Mary, Pigeon and Rainy; West and North-West, a line running from the north-west angle of the Lake of the Woods due north to the Winnipeg River, if such line falls west of the confluence of the English and Winnipeg Rivers, or across the Winnipeg and English Rivers, in case such line falls east of the confluence of those rivers, thence up the English River, or up the Winnipeg and English Rivers, as the case may be, through Lac Seul, or Lonely Lake, across the portage between that lake and Lake St. Joseph, through Lake St. Joseph, and down the Albany River to the point where the line is intersected by another line running due north from the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. The Privy Council's decision defined the boundary no further, but if, as is probable, the award of the arbitrators who reported in 1878 is to be adopted from this point, the line will continue down the Albany to its mouth, and thence follow the shore of James' Bay to the point where it is intersected by a line drawn due north from Lake Temiscamingue, the point of departure.

AREA AND POPULATION.

The boundaries of Ontario, as thus defined, embrace an area of about 220,000 square miles. The population of the Province, according to the

THE CLIMATE OF ONTARIO.

For several years past careful observations have been made at a number of Meteorological Stations, established by the Government of Ontario at a number of selected points. These are all connected with and report to the Central Meteorological Office in Toronto. From the reports furnished from ten of these stations, representing different localities throughout the Province, we get the following as the mean temperature of the Province during the six months of the growing season. The observations from which those averages are deduced were made at Goderich, Windsor, Simcoe, Stratford, Hamilton, Toronto, Barrie, Peterborough, Cornwall, and Pembroke.

AGRICULTURE.

Ontario is pre-eminently an agricultural province. As a natural consequence of the great diversity of soil, climate and location to be found in a country of so great extent, the product and capacities of different sections are considerably varied. But of the greater part of the Province it may be said that the soil is fertile and the climate favourable to the production of most of the cereals, roots and fruits of the temperate zones, while large sections, especially the West Midland Counties and those bordering on Lakes Erie and Ontario are perhaps unsurpassed as grain-growing districts in any country in the world.

The rapid development of the agricultural resources of the Province during the last half century is well illustrated by statistics collected by the Ontario Bureau of Industries. In the thirty-nine years from 1842 to 1881 the area of occupied land in Ontario increased from 6,212,726 to 18,876,055 acres, and the area under cultivation from 1,751,528 to 11,030,619 acres. The ratio of land under cultivation to the whole amount occupied increased during the same period from 28.2 to 58.4 per cent. According to the decennial census reports it appears that during the thirty years from 1851 to 1881 the number of people in Ontario described as the agricultural class, including farmers and farmers' sons, gardeners and nurserymen, dairymen, veterinary surgeons and farriers, and those of other agricultural occupations, increased from 86,637 to 304,630, or nearly four-fold.

Taking the year 1882 as an average year for illustration, the county of Middlesex led off in fall wheat, the great agricultural staple, with 102,282 acres and 2,761,614 bushels. Huron followed close with 91,067 acres and 2,640,943 bushels. Next in order came Simcoe with 66,719 acres and 2,068,289 bushels; Bruce with 66,202 acres and 1,986,060 bushels; Perth with 60,406 acres and 1,691,284 bushels; Kent, 59,858 acres and 1,556,308 bushels; Grey, 50,277 acres and 1,508,310 bushels; Elgin, 52,158 acres and 1,460,624 bushels; York, 52,568 acres and 1,419,336 bushels; Waterloo, 45,610 acres and 1,368,300 bushels; Oxford, 49,245 acres and 1,231,125 bushels; and Wellington, 37,517 acres and 1,012,959 bushels. Lambton, Brant, Essex, Norfolk, Wentworth, Peel, Haldimand, Lincoln and Ontario, come next in the order named, with crops of between a million and a half-million bushels; other counties bringing up the rear with smaller quantities. In spring wheat Durham county stood first the same year, with 42,676 acres and 853,520 bushels; Ontario following with 49,164 acres and 835,788 bushels; Victoria with 43,732 acres and 780,696 bushels, and so on. In 1883 the following counties produced over two millions of bushels of oats each, viz.: Huron, 72,975 acres, 3,006,570 bushels; Middlesex, 62,866 acres, 2,810,110 bushels; Grey, 74,872 acres, 2,695,392 bushels; Oxford, 49,101 acres, 2,302,837 bushels; Wellington, 59,267 acres, 2,240,293 bushels; Perth, 52,356 acres, 2,193,716 bushels; Simcoe, 54,017 acres, 2,074,253 bushels; Bruce, 53,145 acres, 2,051,397 bushels; and Carleton, Leeds and Grenville, Ontario, Waterloo, Hastings, Renfrew, Kent, Victoria, Lanark, Wentworth, Elgin, Peel, Peterborough and Glengarry, between one and two millions each. The production of potatoes is more uniform, most of the counties ranging between three-quarters of a million and one-quarter of a million of bushels. The cultivation of other cereals and roots varies largely with localities and circumstances. Following is the average yield per acre of the principal agricultural products for the whole Province in 1882: Fall wheat, 26.3 bushels per acre; spring wheat, 16.5; barley, 28.6; oats, 36.4; rye, 18.7; peas, 19.6; potatoes, 115; mangold wurzels, 488; carrots, 403; turnips, 448; hay and clover, 2.14 tons per acre.

THE FOREST.

One of the most important sources of wealth of the Province of Ontario is its magnificent forests. The procuring and manufacture of the products of these forests constitutes a very valuable industry and affords employment to many thousands of labourers. During the seventeen years ending with 1883 no less than 1,242,138 acres of public lands were sold by the Government of Ontario at an aggregate price of $1,621,076. There have also been some 15,000 or 16,000 acres of public lands under license each year, the income from which has averaged nearly $100,000 per year. The forests are threatened with extinction from excessive and wasteful cutting, fires and other causes, and the question of their preservation is engaging the attention of the Government and of many thoughtful persons.

Following is a list of some of the more common trees found in the forests of Ontario, and the uses for which they are recommended. (From the "Forestry Report" made by R. W. Phipps to the Ontario Government in 1884.)

MANUFACTURES.

According to the Census Returns of Industries for 1881 there were in Ontario 23,190 Manufacturing Establishments, representing 144 different industries, and having 118,308 employees. The total amount of wages paid per year was $30,683,541, an average of $258.51 per hand employed. The value of raw material used was $91,151,006, and the total value of products, $157,989,870.

A Special Report on the Manufacturing Industries of Canada, which was prepared by order of the Dominion Government and laid before Parliament during the Session of 1883, gives some later statistics. The report is not exhaustive, and the figures for Ontario and Quebec are not distinguished. The following facts are given in respect to factories in these two Provinces, which were visited by the Government Commissioner in 1884.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS OF ONTARIO.

The Educational System of Ontario makes ample provision for both primary and higher education. The gradation is regular and complete from the Public Schools up through the High Schools and Collegiate Institutes to the Colleges and Universities. Following is a list of the higher institutions of learning, including the Universities and Colleges with and without University powers. The University of Toronto, as at present constituted, is simply an examining and degree-conferring, but not a teaching institution. It is supported by an endowment set aside from the public resources at the period of its foundation, and is the Provincial University. University College and Upper Canada College are also supported by state endowments. All the other Universities and Colleges are dependent upon the voluntary endowments and contributions of the bodies with which they are connected.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTES AND HIGH SCHOOLS.

Next in order of gradation below the University of Toronto, and forming the connecting link between it and the Public School in the Provincial system, come the Collegiate Institutes and High Schools. Each of these is managed by a Board of Trustees, who, in the cities, are all appointed by the City Council, and in towns by the County and Town Councils jointly. The Head Master of every High School and Collegiate Institute must be a graduate of a British or colonial University, unless certificated before 18th September, 1885. Every High School having two qualified teachers, receives a fixed Government grant of $500 ; and also a certain additional amount on the salaries of teachers, but a sum equal to half the Government grant must be raised by local assessment. High Schools which can show an average of over sixty male pupils, studying Classics, may be made Collegiate Institutes, and become entitled to an additional grant of $250. The amount of money raised for High Schools and Collegiate Institutes in 1883 was as follows :—

Legislative Grants	$ 84,980.75
Municipal Grants	208,160.63
Fees of Pupils	30,066.57
Balances and other Sources	55,671.57
Total	$378,888.52

Number of pupils in attendance, boys, 6,056 ; girls, 5,787 ; total, 11,843 ; average attendance, 6,454. The highest salary paid to a Head Master was $2,250 ; the lowest, $636. There were in all in the Province, in 1883, sixteen collegiate institutes, and eighty-eight High Schools.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Each township is sub-divided into a convenient number of School Sections, and each School Section is under the management of a Board of Trustees, elected by the ratepayers. By a provision of the Public School

Act as amended in 1885, the trustees of townships, cities, towns and incorporated villages, may henceforth be elected by ballot at the same time as municipal councillors are elected, if required by resolution of the Board, passed before the 1st October in any year, and such resolutions, when once adopted, need not be repeated.

According to the report of the Minister of Education there were in Ontario, in 1883, 5,058 Public Schools in operation, attended by 438,192 pupils, out of a total school population of 478,791, between the ages of five and sixteen years. The grand total of pupils attending High, Public and Separate Schools was 477,212.

There were in all 6,911 Public School Teachers, of whom 2,829 were males, and 4,082 females. The highest salary paid to a male teacher was $1,200, the lowest $120, average $422. Average salary of female teachers, $271.

The total expenditure for all Public School purposes was $3,108,429.64.

ROMAN CATHOLIC SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

There were in Ontario, in 1883, 194 Roman Catholic Separate Schools, taught by 397 teachers, of whom 97 were males, and 300 females. The average salaries of male Separate School teachers was $352, female $188. Total number of pupils 26,277. Average attendance, 13,705. Total expenditure, $153,611.25.

COUNTY MODEL SCHOOLS.

In addition to the Provincial Normal and Model Schools at Toronto and Ottawa, provision is made for the professional training of third-class teachers at local Model Schools. One of the Public Schools in each Inspectoral Division is selected by the Minister of Education and constituted a Model School for this purpose, and every candidate for a third-class certificate is required, after passing the non-professional examination, to attend one of these Model Schools for a specified term, preparatory to the examination on professional subjects. The Principal of the Public School is entrusted with the management of the Model School thus constituted, and an additional legislative grant is made to the school so selected.

THE JUDICIARY OF ONTARIO.

By an Act passed by the Ontario Legislative Assembly in 1881 (44 Vict, c. 5,) all the Superior Courts previously existing were consolidated into one "Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario." This Supreme Court was by the same Act subdivided into two permanent divisions, viz:

I. The High Court of Justice for Ontario.

II. The Court of Appeal for Ontario.

Under this Act of Consolidation the previously existing Court of Queen's Bench is called the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court; the Court of Chancery, the Chancery Division of the High Court; the Court of Common Pleas, the Common Pleas Division of the High Court; and all the Judges of the said three Courts or Divisions, Justices of the High Court.

All the Divisions of the High Court have concurrent jurisdiction and any Judge of any one of the said Divisions may be at any time transferred from one to another of the said Divisions.

By another provision of the Act of Consolidation the Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench became President of the Queen's Bench Division; the Chancellor, President of the Chancery Division; and the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, President of the Common Pleas Division. The constitution of the Supreme Court of Ontario, together with the Justices at present constituting it, may be seen in the following schedule:—

SUPREME COURT OF ONTARIO

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.	Chancery Division.	{ Hon. John A. Boyd, President. Hon. William Proudfoot. Hon. Thomas Ferguson.
	Queen's Bench Division.	{ Hon. Adam Wilson, President. Hon. J. D. Armour. Hon. John O'Connor.
	Common Pleas Division.	{ Hon. M. C. Cameron, President. Hon. Thomas Galt. Hon. John E. Rose.
	COURT OF APPEAL	{ Hon. J. H. Hagarty, Chief Justice of Ontario. Hon. J. C. Morrison, Hon. G. W. Burton, Hon. C. S. Patterson, Hon. F. Osler, } Justices of Appeal.

The High Court of Justice, as thus constituted, is a Superior Court of Record, and has all the jurisdiction which, prior to the Act of Consolidation, was vested in the Court of Queen's Bench, including all manner of actions, causes and suits, criminal and civil, real, personal and mixed, within Ontario. It is empowered to hear and determine all issues of law, and also (with the inquest of twelve good and lawful men in the cases provided for) try all issues of fact, and give judgment and award execution thereon, and also in matters which relate to the Queen's Revenue (including the condemnation of contraband or smuggled goods) as may be done by Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law in England; and further, all the jurisdiction which, prior to the Act of Consolidation, was vested in the Court of Chancery, including all cases of fraud, accident, trusts, executors, administrators, co-partnerships, accounts, mortgages, awards, dower, infants, idiots, lunatics and their estates, waste, specific performance, discovery, and to prevent multiplicity of suits, staying proceedings at law prosecuted against equity and good conscience, and may decree the issue, repeal, or avoidance, of letters patent, and generally the like powers which the Court of Chancery in England possesses to administer justice in all cases in which there is no adequate remedy at law; and further, all the jurisdiction which, prior to the Act of Consolidation, was vested in the Court of Common Pleas, and Courts of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, and is a continuation of the said Courts respectively.

The Court of Appeal is also a Superior Court of Record, and has jurisdiction and power for the hearing of appeals in civil cases from any judgment or order of any of the Divisions of the High Court of Justice or of any Judge or Judges thereof, and from Division Courts in cases defined as to amounts, and appeals in criminal cases from the High Court and County Courts.

CHAMBERS.

Chambers are held each day for such business relating to actions as may be transacted by a single Judge out of Court. The Master in Chambers is empowered to obtain the assistance of the Registrar of the Queen's Bench or of any Official Referee to sit with or for him.

Master in Chambers—R. G. Dalton, Q.C.

COURTS FOR THE TRIAL OF CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS.

The Superior Courts are specially empowered to try cases of contested elections to the House of Commons of Canada, by one of their Judges appointed for that purpose. Appeals lie to the Supreme Court at Ottawa.

Cases of contested elections to the House of Assembly of Ontario are tried by a Judge chosen by the Judges of the Superior Court, that is to say, the members of the Court of Appeal, and of the Queen's Bench, Chancery and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court, select annually, by a majority of votes, one of the Judges thereof, to be placed on the rota for the trial of such petitions. Where charges of corrupt practices are involved the trials are presided over by two Judges. In other cases a single Judge presides. An appeal lies to the Court of Appeal of the Province.

COUNTY COURTS.

These are presided over by a resident Judge in each county, or group of Counties, assisted in some counties by a Deputy or Junior Judge. Their jurisdiction extends to all personal actions where the debt or damages claimed do not exceed $200; and to all suits relating to debt, covenant or contract, where the amount is ascertained by the acts of the parties or signature of the defendant, to $400; and to all bail bonds and recognizances of bail given in the County Court, to any amount, but not to cases involving the title to lands, validity of wills, or actions for libel, slander, crim. con., or seduction. An appeal lies to the Ontario Court of Appeal.

The County Judge in each county holds a sitting of his Court and a Court of General Sessions in his county semi-annually on the second Tuesday in June and December, except in the county of York, in which county said Court is held four times, commencing on the first Tuesday in December and March, and the second Tuesday in May and September. The latter Courts are for the trial of cases of felony and misdemeanor. Treason and capital felonies are exempted from their jurisdiction. The Judge may also, at his own discretion, hold additional sittings at such times as may be deemed expedient to expedite business, but only for the trial of issues of fact without a jury.

COUNTY JUDGE'S CRIMINAL COURT.

Persons committed to jail for trial, on charge of being guilty of any offence for which they may be tried at a Court of General Sessions, may, with their own consent, and subject to the provisions of the Act in that behalf, be forthwith tried by the Judge of the County Court and General Sessions without a jury, and if convicted, be sentenced by the said Judge; and the Judge sitting on any such trial for all the purposes thereof, is constituted a Court of Record, and the record in any such case shall be filed among the records of the Court of General Sessions.

COURTS OF REVISION.

The County Judges hold annually Courts of final revision of the Assessment Rolls of each Municipality. These are, in effect, Courts of Appeal from the first Court of Revision held by the Municipality. The County Judges also hold Courts for the Revision of the Voters' Lists.

SURROGATE COURTS.

These are held by the County Judges. The jurisdiction of these Courts relates to all testamentary matters and causes, and to the granting and revoking of probate of wills, and letters of administration of the effects of deceased persons having estates or effects in Ontario, and all matters arising out of or connected with the grant or revocation of probate or administration, subject to an appeal to the Chancery Division.

DIVISION COURTS.

These are Courts established for the disposal of cases by the presiding Judge, who may be the County Judge or his Deputy, or any Barrister appointed to hold the same. A jury of five persons may be demanded in certain cases. The jurisdiction of these Courts extends to actions of debt or contract where the sum claimed is over $100 and under $200, when the amount is ascertained by the signature of the defendant, subject to an appeal to the Court of Appeal, and to $100 in other cases; but the sums of the account to be gone into cannot exceed $400; injuries or torts to personal chattels amounting to $60; and personal actions to that amount. But actions for gambling debts, liquors drunk in a tavern, or notes of hand given therefor, ejectment, title to land, etc., or any toll, custom or franchise, will or settlement, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, crim. con., seduction or breach of promise, or actions against a J.P. for anything done by him in the execution of his office, if he objects to it, are excepted from the jurisdiction of these Courts. Each Judicial District is divided into Court Divisions, and Courts are held once in two months in each Division, or oftener at the discretion of the Judge. The Divisions are established by the Courts of General Sessions, and in certain cases by the Judges.

SITTINGS OF THE COURTS.

The Court of Appeal holds its sittings at such time and for such periods as the Judges shall, from time to time, deem necessary or convenient for the speedy despatch of business. The periods now fixed are the first Tuesday in March and September, and the second Tuesday in January, May and November.

By the Act of Consolidation the Terms previously prescribed for the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas are abolished, and the various divisions of the High Court are empowered to hold sittings at their discretion, for hearing cases, and for giving judgments, and for disposing of such other business as the Court in its discretion may see fit.

The Chancery Division.—Sittings for hearing of cases, including examination of witnesses, are held twice in each year, at Toronto and on Circuit, the places and dates being previously arranged by the Judges. Sittings for the rehearing of causes are held on the third Thursday in August, the last Thursday in August, and the first Thursday in December. The Court sits every week, except during vacation, for the despatch of business, in the following order: Monday, chamber business: Tuesday, motions; Wednesday, motion for judgment, further directions, petitions, and demurrers; Thursday, appeals from Master's reports.

Long Vacation extends from the first of July to the 1st of September. In Chancery there is also a vacation from the 24th December to the 6th January.

County Courts.—The several County Courts in Ontario, except that of the County of York, holds four sittings in each year, commencing respectively on the first Monday in the months of January, April, July, and October. The Court of the County of York commences on the first Monday in January and April, and the second Monday in June and October, and ends on the Saturday of the same week.

Court Circuits.—There are six circuits of the Law Courts as follows:—

Eastern—Brockville, Cornwall, Kingston, L'Original, Ottawa, Pembroke, Perth.

Midland—Belleville, Cobourg, Napanee, Picton, Whitby.

Niagara—Barrie, Lindsay, Hamilton, Orangeville, Owen Sound, St. Catharines.

Oxford—Berlin, Brantford, Cayuga, Guelph, Simcoe, Stratford, Woodstock.

There are four Chancery Circuits for the examination of witnesses and hearing causes. They are held in Spring and Autumn as follows:—

Western—Chatham, Goderich, London, Sandwich, Sarnia, Stratford, Walkerton, Woodstock.

Home—Barrie, Brantford, Hamilton, Owen Sound, Simcoe, St. Catharines, Whitby.

The Courts in each Circuit are presided over by the Chancellor or one of the Members of the Chancery Division, or by a retired or present Justice of the High Court or of the Court of Appeal, or by a Judge of a County Court, or by some one of Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the law, requested by the Chancellor or one of the Justices to act in that behalf.

The Chief Justices and Justices of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Ontario, the Chief Justices and Justices of the Queen's Bench and Common Pleas Divisions of the High Court of Ontario, and the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellors are all appointed for life, by the Governor-General of the Dominion. The Judges of the County Courts are appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

The local government of Ontario is carried on by means of a Lieutenant-Governor, an Executive Council, and a House of Assembly.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

The Lieutenant-Governor is appointed by the Governor-General of the Dominion in Council. His term of office is five years. By the Canadian constitution the Lieutenant-Governor of a Province is understood to represent the Dominion Government, just as the Governor-General of the Dominion represents the Imperial Government. No act passed by the Legislature becomes law without the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor on behalf of the Dominion authorities, and he may, at pleasure, reserve any bill for the consideration of the Governor-General in Council.

The following are the names of the Lieutenant-Governors of Ontario since Confederation, with their respective terms of office.

General Stisted	July, 1867, to July, 1868.
Hon. W. P. Howland, C.B.	July, 1868, to November, 1873.
*Hon. John Crawford	November, 1873, to May, 1875.
Hon. D. A. Macdonald	May, 1875, to June, 1880.
Hon. J. B. Robinson	June, 1880, to ———

*Died in office.

THE MINISTRY.

The Executive Council, constituting the Provincial Government, or Ministry, is composed of an Attorney-General, a Commissioner of Crown Lands, a Commissioner of Public Works, a Secretary and Registrar, a Treasurer and Commissioner of Agriculture, and a Minister of Education. These are formally appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, but are responsible to the people's representatives in the House of Assembly. In practice, the Government consists of the recognized leader of the political party which is dominant in the Assembly, and of Associate Ministers chosen by him. As in the Dominion Parliament, no one can hold office as a member of the Government until his acceptance of such office has been sanctioned by his return as a member for some constituency. If previously a member of the Assembly he is obliged, on accepting office, to resign and offer himself for re-election.

The following are the members of the Ontario Government as at present constituted (1885):—

Lieutenant-Governor....The Hon. John Beverley Robinson, Toronto.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Attorney-General	Hon. Oliver Mowat.
Commissioner of Crown Lands	Hon. T. B. Parlee.
Commissioner of Public Works	Hon. C. F. Fraser.
Secretary and Registrar	Hon. A. S. Hardy.
Treasurer and Commissioner of Agriculture	Hon. A. M. Ross.
Minister of Education	Hon. G. W. Ross.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

At Confederation the Provincial Legislatures were empowered to frame their own local institutions to suit the wishes of the people of the respective provinces. Ontario alone decided to have but a single House of Parliament, though Manitoba has since followed her example and abolished the Upper Chamber. The representatives are elected for four years, by ballot. The House of Assembly of Ontario, by the amended Franchise Act of 1885, is to be composed of ninety members. These are elected once in four years, or oftener, by an electorate composed of the classes enumerated below.

The seat of government is Toronto, where new Parliament Buildings are about to be erected at a cost of three-quarters of a million of dollars.

THE ELECTORATE.

By the Amended Franchise Bill of 1885 it is enacted that the following persons, and no others, being males and of the full age of twenty-one years, and subjects of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, and not otherwise legally disqualified, are entitled to be duly entered on the list of voters and to vote at elections of members to serve in the Legislative Assembly of the Province.

(1) Every owner, tenant, or occupant, of real property of the actual value of not less than, in cities and towns, two hundred dollars; in incorporated villages and townships, one hundred dollars.

(2) Every person who is residing at the time of the election in the municipality in which he tenders his vote and has resided therein continuously since the completion of the last revised assessment roll of the municipality, and who derives and is duly assessed for, an income of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars annually in the said municipality.

(3) Every person similarly resident in the municipality, who has during the twelve months next prior to his being entered on the last revised assessment roll derived or earned wages or income to the amount of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars.

(4) Every person similarly resident in the municipality, who is duly entered as a householder in the last revised assessment roll.

(5) Every landholder's son, who has been similarly resident in the municipality, in his father's house, and duly entered as such landholder's son on the assessment roll. Occasional or temporary absence for a time or times not exceeding in the whole six months of the twelve, does not disenfranchise such landholder's son to vote.

(6) Every enfranchised Indian, or person with part Indian blood, and every Indian, or person with part Indian Blood, who does not reside among Indians, though he may participate in the annuities, interest, moneys and rents of a tribe, band or body of Indians, subject to the same qualifications and provisions, in other respects, as other persons in the electoral district.

(7) In such of the municipalities, townships and places of certain enumerated electoral districts as have no assessment roll, every person of the full age of twenty-one years, being a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, and not otherwise disqualified, who is at the time of the election a resident of and domiciled in the electoral district in which he claims to vote, and who is the bona fide owner of real estate of the value of not less than two hundred dollars, or who is at the time of the election a resident householder of such place, and has been owner or householder for the six months next preceding the election.

THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The foundations of the Canadian Confederation were laid in the City of Quebec, on the 10th of October, by what is known as the "Quebec Conference." At that conference all the provinces of British North America, then constituted, with the exception of British Columbia, were represented. The delegates were thirty-three in number, and had been appointed by the Legislatures of the respective provinces as follows: Canada 12, New Brunswick 7, Prince Edward Island 7, Nova Scotia 5, Newfoundland 2. Their appointment and meeting were the outcome of a long series of informal discussions in the provinces represented, in some of which the project of a confederation had been mooted more than half a century before. At this time, however, peculiar circumstances both in Canada and the Maritime provinces had combined to forward the movement. The Legislative Union of Upper and Lower Canada had failed to bring about the desired harmony between the two provinces and races. A parliamentary struggle of almost unexampled severity had resulted in a dead-lock which rendered further legislation impossible. Casting about for a permanent solution of the difficulty—some of the more far-seeing statesmen of both parties had concluded that it was to be found only in a dissolution of the existing Legislative Union and the formation of a Federal Union, on, if possible, a wider basis. With this end in view, delegates were appointed to visit the Maritime provinces and to ascertain whether it might not now be practicable to realize the dream of a British North American Confederation. Meanwhile, the three Maritime Provinces, having become tired of their isolation, with all the expensive machinery of government it involved, were just considering the feasibility of forming a Maritime Union. The delegates assembled in Charlottetown, P.E.I. for that purpose, were visited by the representatives of the Canadian Government, and readily consented to hold their own project in abeyance, pending consideration of the advisability of attempting the larger Union. The result was the Quebec Conference above referred to.

The deliberations of the Conference continued for seventeen days, during which the scheme of Confederation was discussed in all its bearings. A general plan was agreed upon and a series of resolutions adopted as the basis of an Act of Confederation. These resolutions were carried at the next session of the Canadian Parliament, on the 3rd of February, 1865, by a vote of ninety-one to thirty-three. The scheme, at first, met with violent opposition in all the Maritime Provinces. The resolutions were finally carried by the influence of the Government in the Nova Scotia Legislature, without an appeal to the people. They were at first decisively condemned at the polls in New Brunswick, but afterwards, by the combined influence of the British Colonial Secretary, the Government of the Province, and the leaders of the Confederation movement in the Assembly, a re-action was brought about, and the measure triumphantly carried. Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland rejected the resolutions. Delegates from the Canadas, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, proceeded to London to complete the details of the scheme and secure the necessary legislation. The British North American Act was passed through the British House of Parliament and received the Royal assent on the 28th of March, 1867, and by Royal Proclamation the Confederation of the Provinces of Ontario (Upper Canada), Quebec (Lower Canada), Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, was consummated on the first day of July in that year.

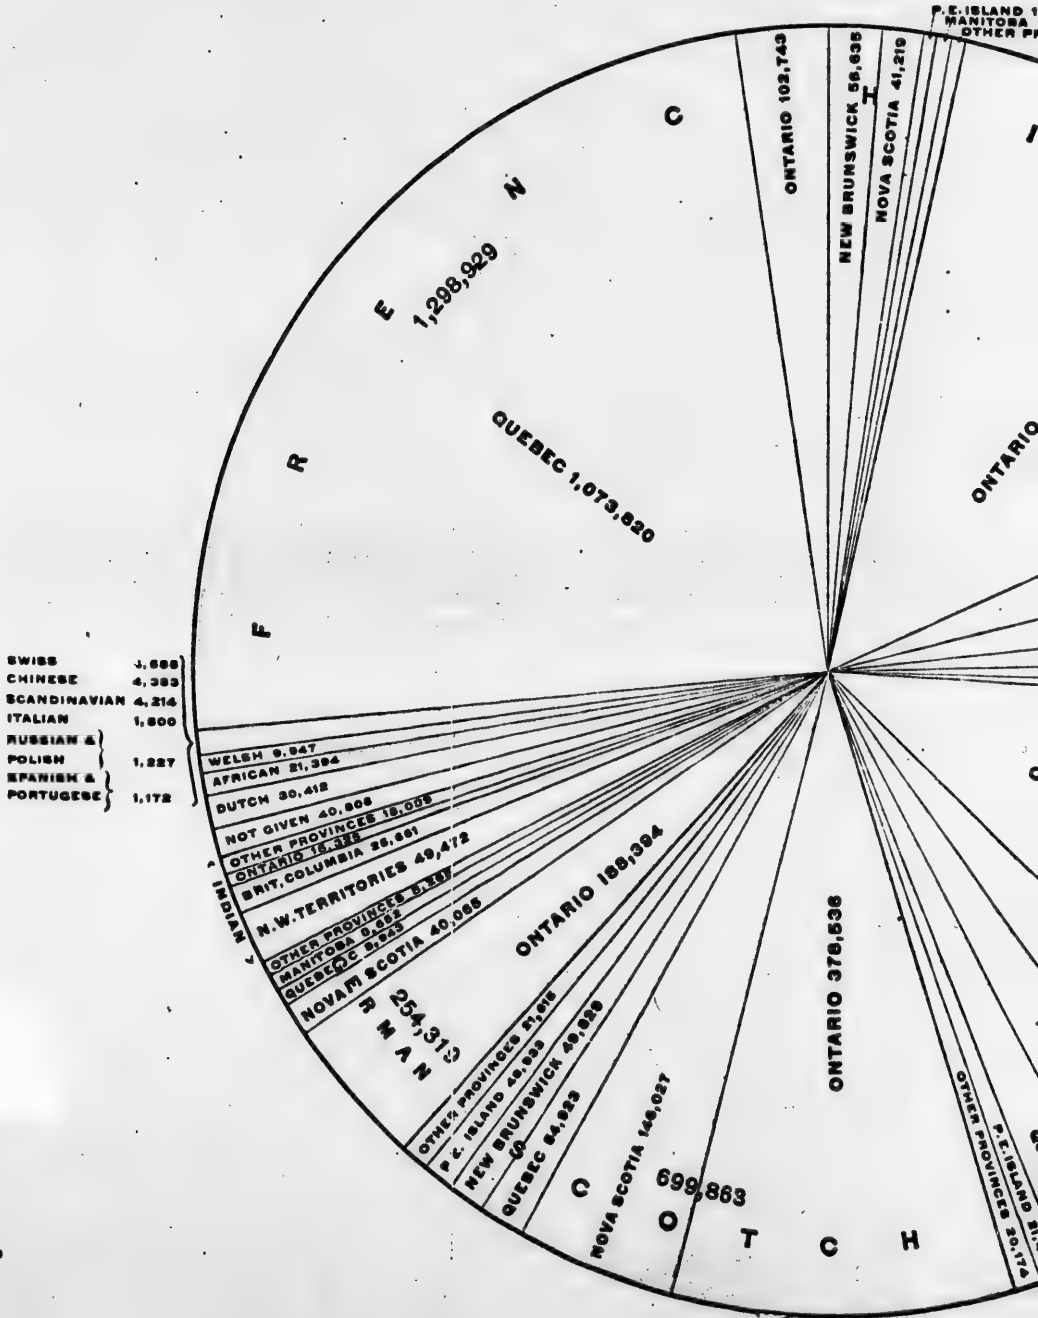

Negotiations with the Hudson's Bay Company for the extinguishment of its territorial rights in the North-West territory were successfully completed, and an Act making the necessary appropriation passed by the Canadian Parliament in April, 1869. The original intention of admitting this whole country under the title of the North-West Territory, in December, 1869, was frustrated by the half-breed rebellion; but on the 20th of May, 1870, an Act passed the Dominion Parliament, creating the new Province of Manitoba and admitting it to the Confederation, and it was so admitted by Royal proclamation on the 23rd of June of that year. The vast remaining portion of the great prairie region extending all the way to the Rocky Mountains, though provisionally divided into provinces, is still known and governed as the North-West Territory. On the 20th of July, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, including Vancouver's Island, was added to the Dominion of Canada, and on the first of July, 1873, six years after the formation of the Union, Prince Edward Island also became a member of the Confederation.

CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT.

The Supreme Executive Authority in the Dominion of Canada is vested in the Queen. All legislative acts, civil processes and naval and military proclamations are issued in her name.

The Queen's representative in Canada is the Governor-General, who is appointed for a term of years. He is advised and aided by a Privy Council of fourteen members, constituting the Cabinet or Ministry. Formally, the members of the Ministry are summoned and appointed by the Governor-General. But as in accordance with the principles of responsible government the Ministry of the day must be supported by a majority of the people's representatives in Parliament, the Ministry is, in practice, composed of the recognized leader of the dominant party in the House of Commons, and such members of Senate and Commons as may be by him chosen and recommended to the Governor-General for appointment.

The Parliament consists of two Chambers, the Senate and the House of Commons.

The Senate, as at present constituted, consists of seventy-eight members apportioned amongst the Provinces as follows: Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 3. The members of the Senate are appointed by the Governor-General, on the recommendation of the Privy Council, and hold their seats for life, subject to forfeiture in case of bankruptcy, conviction of crime, treason, or taking the oath of allegiance to any foreign power, or if they shall cease to possess the necessary property qualification—real estate to the value of four thousand dollars. Senators must also reside in the province, (or, in Quebec, in the district,) for which they are appointed. The Sessions of the Senate are presided over by a Speaker who is appointed by the Crown. He may vote on all questions, but when the House is equally divided can vote only in the negative.

The House of Commons as at present constituted (1887) contains 211 members. The provinces are represented as follows: Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 6; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5.

This representation is subject to re-adjustment on the taking of each decennial census, on the following basis: Quebec to have a fixed number of 65 members, and the representation of each of the other provinces to be increased or diminished so as to maintain the same proportion to its population which sixty-five bears to that of Quebec. The members are elected for five years, but the House may be dissolved sooner by the Executive. The Commons elects its own Speaker, who can vote only in case of a tie. In the Session of 1855, a Deputy-Speaker was elected to aid the Speaker in the discharge of his duties.

The Debates may be conducted in either English or French, and all proceedings are recorded in both languages. In order to be eligible for election to the House of Commons the Candidate must be a British subject and must possess property worth not less than $2,500. Hitherto the Dominion franchise has been the same as the local franchise adopted by each province for election of representatives to its own Legislature, but the Government is just now (Session of 1885) causing a Bill to be passed through the House, erecting a special, and, throughout most of the Provinces, uniform franchise for the Dominion electorate.

The jurisdiction of the Dominion Parliament extends over all matters which concern all the provinces, or the Dominion as a whole, such as, the public debt; expenditure; public loans; customs and excise duties; treaties (subject to the Imperial authorities); trade and commerce; navigation, shipping and fisheries; lighthouses and harbours; the postal, naval and military services; public statistics; monetary institutions, banks, banking, currency, coining and insolvency; criminal law, marriage and divorce; public works, railways and canals, and all subjects not specially assigned to the local legislatures. When there is concurrent jurisdiction with the local legislatures, as in the matters affecting immigration and agriculture, the Acts of the Dominion have paramount authority, and in case of antagonism, supersede those of the inferior legislatures.

Each provincial legislature has the right of levying direct taxation within the province, borrowing money on the credit of the provinces for provincial purposes, regulating municipal institutions, education, licenses, local public works, property and civil rights within the province, the administration of justice, hospitals, asylums and charities, and generally all matters of a local or private character. All (with the exception of Manitoba) have the control of the public lands, with their mines, minerals, etc., within the province.

THE JUDICIARY.

The appointment of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the Dominion, and also of the Superior, District and County Courts of the various provinces, is the prerogative of the Governor-General in Council. The judges hold office for life, unless it be forfeited by misconduct, and are selected from the bars of the respective provinces.

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE DOMINION AND THE COURT OF EXCHEQUER.

The Supreme Court, as a high Court of Appeal, is composed of a Chief Justice and five Puisne Judges, and has appellate, civil and criminal jurisdiction within and throughout the Dominion of Canada. The Judges reside at Ottawa, where the Supreme Court holds annually three Sessions—the first beginning on the third Tuesday in February, the second on the first Tuesday in May, and the third on the fourth Tuesday in October.

CANADIAN POSTAL REGULATIONS.

INLAND,

(i. e., letters, &c., from one office within the Dominion of Canada to another.)

RATES OF POSTAGE ON LETTERS.

The rate of postage on a letter posted within the Dominion of Canada, for transmission by mail to any place in Canada, is 3 cents per half ounce weight; prepaid by postage stamp at the time of posting the letter.

Any such letter posted wholly unpaid cannot be forwarded to its destination, but will be sent to the Dead Letter Office for return to the writer.

If a letter weighing more than $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., and not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, be posted prepaid 3 cents only, it will be rated 6 cents unpaid—"more to pay"—and forwarded to its address.

On letters posted at an office to be delivered from it, commonly known as "drop letters," the rate will be 1 cent per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.; to be in all cases prepaid by postage stamp affixed to such letter when posted.

All letters are liable to the ordinary rates of postage, whether sealed or unsealed, and whether posted at a post office or handed to a mail courier on his journey from one post office to another.

Letters re-directed from one office to another in Canada without being taken out of the post office are not liable to any additional postage on being re-forwarded. This regulation applies to letters mailed in the United States addressed to Canada and re-directed from Canada to the United States without being taken out of the post office.

NEWSPAPERS.

Newspapers and periodicals printed and published in Canada, mailed by the publishers in the post office at the place where they are published, and addressed to regular subscribers or newsdealers in Canada, resident elsewhere than at the place of publication—or at the place of publication, provided it be not in a city or town where free delivery by letter carrier has been established—are transmitted by mail to their respective addresses in Canada, the United States, or Newfoundland free of postage.

Any Canadian newspaper which claims to be entitled to free transmission by mail must be addressed to a bona fide subscriber in Canada (the United States or Newfoundland), or to a known newsdealer in Canada.

On all newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada, other than those addressed from the office of publication, to regular subscribers or news agents in the Dominion, including all newspapers and periodicals published less frequently than once a month, the rate will be one cent per four ounces, to be invariably prepaid by postage stamp.

Newspapers and periodicals posted at an office to be delivered from it (drop newspapers) are to be prepaid by postage stamp one-half cent each. Newspapers posted without prepayment will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Newspapers and periodicals weighing less than one ounce each may be posted singly if prepaid by postage stamp one-half cent each.

Transient newspapers and periodicals include all newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada, other than Canadian newspapers sent from the office of publication, and British newspapers posted by news agents for regular subscribers in Canada. When addressed to any place within the Dominion, they must be prepaid the following rates by postage stamp:—

If weighing less than one oz., half a cent each.

If weighing over one oz., one cent per four oz. or fraction of four oz.

Specimen copies of newspapers and periodicals from the office of publication are transmitted by mail to their respective addresses in Canada, Newfoundland, or the United States free of postage.

British newspapers and periodicals brought by mail to Canadian booksellers or news agents, and re-posted by them to regular subscribers in Canada, may be mailed by such Canadian booksellers or news agents free of postage.

Postmasters are strictly forbidden to open newspapers addressed to or passing through their offices for the purpose of reading them, or of allowing them to be read.

As regards transient newspapers passing within the Dominion of Canada, simple marks calling the attention of the party addressed to any particular paragraph or advertisement will be allowed, provided that such marks are not of the nature of a letter.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTER.

On all pamphlets, occasional publications, printed circulars, prices current, hand-bills, exhibitors' entry tickets for Dominion or Provincial exhibitions, book and newspaper manuscripts, printers' proof sheets, whether corrected or not; maps, prints, drawings, engravings, lithographs, photographs, when not on glass or in cases containing glass; botanical and entomological specimens, when properly put up, so as to prevent injury to the contents of the mails; sheet music, whether printed or written; documents wholly or partly printed or written, such as deeds, insurance policies (including renewal receipts when attached to the policies); voters' lists, militia and school returns, or other documents of like nature, the rate of postage is one cent for each four ounces; provided that no letter or other communication intended to serve the purpose of a letter be sent or enclosed in any such package or thing mentioned, and that the same be sent in covers open at the ends or sides, or otherwise so put up as to admit of the contents being, if necessary, easily withdrawn for examination by the officers of the post office to ensure compliance with this provision; if enclosed in sealed envelopes notched at the ends or sides, or with the corners cut off, letter rate of postage will be charged; and that the postage rate be prepaid by postage stamp or stamped post bands or wrappers, in all cases. Limit of weight, 4 lbs. To all parts of Manitoba, the North-West Territories, and British Columbia (except the city of Winnipeg, to which the 4 lb. limit applies) the limit of weight is 2 lbs. 3 oz.

No packet of miscellaneous matter can be transmitted by mail if it exceed 24 inches in length or 12 inches in width or depth.

The rate of postage upon packages of seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, or grafts is one cent for each four ounces, which must be prepaid by postage stamp. The limit of weight is four pounds.

BOOK PACKETS.

Every book packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise) or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter, and must be charged accordingly. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string. Postmasters are authorized to cut the string in such cases, if necessary, to enable them to examine the contents; but, if they do so, they must again tie up the packet.

It must not contain any letter, open or sealed, or any writing intended to serve the purpose of a letter, or any sealed enclosure whatever.

No book packet must exceed five pounds in weight, nor must the size exceed two feet in length or one foot in width or depth.

Book packets addressed to Manitoba (except to the cities of Winnipeg and Victoria and places on the line of the C. P. R., to which the limit is five pounds) or British Columbia, must not exceed 2 lbs. 3 oz. in weight.

Books (bound or unbound), pamphlets, and occasional publications, posted in Canada and addressed to any place in Canada, are chargeable with a rate of one cent per four ounces, which must be prepaid by postage stamp.

PATTERN AND SAMPLE MATTER.

Patterns or samples of merchandise, or of goods for sale, not exceeding 24 ounces in weight, may be posted in Canada for transmission to any place within the Dominion on prepayment by postage stamp of a rate of one cent per four ounces. Pattern and sample post is restricted to bona fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of any order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, are not admissible.

PARCELS.

Parcels closed at the ends and sides, and not exceeding five pounds in weight, may be posted to any post office in Canada for conveyance to any other post office in the Dominion at the following rates:—

For each parcel weighing not more than 4 oz.... 6 cents.

Exceeding 4 oz. and not exceeding 8 oz.....12 "

For each additional 4 oz. or fraction thereof..... 6 "

The weight of the parcel must not exceed five pounds, nor the size exceed two feet in length or one foot in breadth or thickness.

The parcel should have the words "By Parcel Post" plainly written on the address.

Parcels cannot be transmitted by post to any place beyond the limits of the Dominion of Canada.

No parcel can be forwarded to British Columbia or Manitoba (except to the city of Winnipeg, to which the limit is 5 lbs.) via the United States, which exceeds in weight the limit of 2 lbs. 3 oz.

REGISTRATION.

(Registration stamps are only to be used in payment of Registration fees, and must not be used in prepayment of postage.)

On every letter and packet posted for registration, addressed to any place within the Dominion of Canada, should be affixed, in addition to a stamp or stamps representing the postage, a registered letter stamp of the value of two cents.

On a parcel or packet of patterns or samples addressed to any part of Canada, the registration fee is five cents. This fee must be paid by a five-cent registration stamp.

Every letter or packet containing value should have affixed thereto a registered letter stamp, and should be presented to the postmaster or his clerk for registration, and a receipt obtained therefor. On no account should it be dropped into a letter box, as in such cases the rule requiring a receipt to be given by the postmaster for every registered letter or packet cannot be complied with.

Registered letters and packets can be delivered only to the parties to whom they are addressed or to their order, and a receipt must be given on the delivery of each registered letter in a book kept by every postmaster for that purpose.

Postmasters are instructed not to accept for registration letters addressed either to initials or what may appear to be fictitious names.

It should be clearly understood that registration does not make the Postmaster-General responsible for the contents of a registered letter or parcel if lost or stolen. The registration simply makes its transmission more secure, by rendering it practicable to trace it when passing from one place to another in Canada from its receipt to its delivery.

POSTAGE STAMPS, STAMPED ENVELOPES, POST CARDS, AND POST BANDS.

With the exception of the postmasters at the cities where the retail sale of stamps is confined to licensed stamp dealers, every postmaster is required to have on hand a sufficient stock of postage and registered letter stamps, stamped envelopes, post cards, and post bands, and, with the exception of post bands and stamped envelopes, to sell them to the public at their face value.

It is not lawful for any person other than a postmaster to exercise the business of selling stamps or stamped envelopes to the public, unless duly licensed to do so by the Postmaster-General, and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

No person who may be licensed by the Postmaster-General to sell postage stamps is at liberty to dispose of them for a less price than their face value.

The impressed stamp cut from an envelope cannot be used for prepayment of postage in any shape, and when detached from the envelope on which it was impressed it loses all value as a postage stamp.

No British postage stamp, or postage stamp of a foreign country, or bill, law, or registration stamp, can be received in prepayment of postage in Canada.

Stamps should be affixed to letters on the right hand upper corner of the face or address side.

POST CARDS.

The front or engraved side is intended for the address. There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed upon it. On the reverse side, any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached to a post card, nor may the post card be cut or altered in any way. If anything be gummed, pasted, or otherwise attached to or upon a post card, or, if it be cut or altered in any way, it is not mailable as a post card, and must be at once sent to the Dead Letter Office.

No cards posted within the Dominion can pass as post cards, except such as are issued by the Canada Post Office and British and Foreign reply cards.

For the convenience of correspondence by post card within the Dominion, a double post card has been issued, which will afford to the original sender of this form of card the means of sending with his communication a blank prepaid post card to be used in reply. Each half of the double card will bear a one cent postage stamp impressed thereon in prepayment.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Postmasters are not authorized to give credit for postage, postage stamps, box rents, or any other item of postal revenue; if they do so, it is entirely at their own risk.

A postmaster cannot be required to deliver a letter or parcel until all postage due thereon is paid by the party to whom the same may be addressed.

A letter once posted becomes the property of the person to whom it is addressed, and must be forwarded according to its directions. On no application, however urgent, can it be delivered back to the writer, or to any other person.

A letter addressed to a firm may be delivered to any member of the firm. If addressed to several persons, it may be delivered to any one of them.

A letter delivered to the wrong person in consequence of his name being the same as the one of the person for whom the letter is really intended, should be at once returned to the postmaster from whom received, the party writing on the cover, "Opened by me through mistake," and signing his name thereto.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office, except to the persons to whom they are addressed. Postmasters are not permitted to furnish any information respecting the names or addresses of persons who receive correspondence at their respective offices.

Under no circumstances is a postmaster authorized to open a letter posted for delivery at his office, or passing through his office (excepting, of course, such letters as may be addressed to himself).

Parties desiring their letters and papers to be re-directed should send an intimation to that effect in writing to the postmaster of the office from which the letters and papers are to be re-directed.

Postmasters are allowed to re-direct letters to the known places of residence of the parties to whom they are addressed, after allowing a reasonable time to elapse without their being called for.

Letters and papers are not subject to any additional charge when re-directed from one post office in Canada to another post office in Canada, provided that they are not taken out of the post office.

If a letter or packet is refused, or the party to whom it is addressed cannot be found, any postage thereon is recoverable, with costs, by the Postmaster-General from the sender of such letter or packet.

When letters passing within the Dominion are sent in covers or envelopes having printed thereon a request from the sender that the letter, if not delivered within, or called for at the office addressed within, a certain time specified in the request, may be returned to his address, as printed in the said request, such request will be complied with by the postmaster of the office addressed, whose duty it is, at the expiration of the time named by the sender, to write upon the letter the reason for non-delivery, and forward it to the address given.

Such request applies to letters only, and cannot be complied with unless the request appears upon the envelope in print, and the postage has been fully prepaid.

No postage charge is made on returning or delivering such request letters to the address given.

These regulations apply only to request letters originating within the Dominion or in the United States, and addressed to places in those countries; such requests appearing on letters from other countries cannot be complied with.

A postmaster is not legally bound to furnish change, but, if absolutely necessary, may require that the exact amount of postage on any letter or packet be tendered to him in current coin, or in Canada postage stamps.

Postmasters and their assistants in the above matter, as well as in all their official intercourse with the public, are expected to afford every accommodation, and to treat all persons having business at their offices with every courtesy.

Mail couriers are bound to receive letters offered to them whilst on the road between one post office and another, provided that when a letter is so offered the distance from the nearest post office exceeds one mile. Such letters are termed Way Letters, and must be prepaid by stamp.

Letters addressed to initials or to fictitious names cannot be delivered, but will be returned to the writers through the Dead Letter Office, unless the address contains a designated place of delivery: thus, a letter addressed A. B., Post Office, Ottawa, would be returned to the writer; but a letter addressed A. B., care of John Jones, box No. 785, or No. 650 Russell Street, would be delivered at the address designated.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to a postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter on being re-posted will be endorsed with the words, "Posted at — under cover to the postmaster at —."

When letters or papers are delayed or missing, at once communicate the fact to the Postmaster-General at Ottawa or to the Inspector of the division in which is situated the post office at which the delayed or missing letters were posted. In case of a missing letter enclosing value, state the exact contents, the exact address, and the office at which posted; the name of the person by whom posted, and the name of the person by whom received at the office. In the case of a delayed letter or paper, send the cover or wrapper in an entire state, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of it.

MONEY ORDERS.

Post offices in Canada at which money orders are issued and paid are distinguished in the List of Post Offices by being printed in italics.

On money orders drawn by any Money Order Office in Canada on any other Money Order Office in the Dominion, the commission is as follows:—

	If not exceeding $1.....	2c.
Over $1 " "	10.....	5c.
" 10 " "	20.....	10c.
" 20 " "	40.....	20c.
" 40 " "	60.....	30c.
" 60 " "	80.....	40c.
" 80 " "	100.....	50c.

No single money order, payable in the Dominion of Canada, can be issued for more than $100; but as many of $100 each may be given as the remitter requires.

Not more than one order under $10 payable in Canada may be issued to the same person in the same day, drawn on the same place in favor of the same payee.

Applicants for money orders must always use the printed application forms, in which they will fill up the particulars of the order required. These forms are supplied gratuitously at all money order offices.

The senders of money orders payable in Canada can procure repayment thereof, on certain conditions, by applying to the Superintendent, Money Order Branch, Ottawa, through whom also application should be made for repayment in Canada of money orders payable abroad. Any order, however, may be repaid without the authority of the Superintendent, if presented for repayment on the day on which it is issued, and before the advice has been mailed.

Persons procuring money orders should examine them carefully to see that they are properly filled up and stamped, and contain neither alteration nor erasure. This caution will appear the more necessary when it is understood that any defect in these respects will throw difficulties in the way of payment.

The issue of money orders on credit, or for cheques not marked "good" by the bank drawn upon, is strictly prohibited, and by the Post Office Act of 1875 is made a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment. Persons aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring the commission of any such offence are guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable as principal offenders.

Payees who are not known to the postmaster or paying officer are required to prove their identity before the orders they present can be cashed.

When a money order payable in Canada has been lost, the circumstances must be made known to the superintendent, who, under certain precautions, will either issue or take measures to obtain a duplicate.

Money orders which are not presented until one full year after their date are considered as lapsed orders, and cannot be paid without the special permission of the Superintendent. In all such cases satisfactory reasons should be given explanatory of the delay in the presentation of the order.

COMMERCIAL LAW.

PARTNERSHIP

is the result of a contract, whereby two or more persons agree to combine property or labor, for the purpose of a common undertaking, and the acquisition of a common profit. Community of profits, as principals, is a proof of partnership. It is a general rule that each partner is the accredited agent of the rest, and has authority as such to bind them, either by simple contracts respecting the goods or business of the firm, or by negotiable instruments circulated in its behalf. An agreement amongst partners that, after dissolution, the credits of the firm shall be received and its debts paid by one of the late partners only, does not affect their joint responsibility to third persons, unless such persons agree to exchange the liability of the firm for that of the single partner. A partnership must be formed by the intervention of all the parties to be bound by it. It may be formed for a limited period, in which case the contract dissolves on the arrival of that period. It may also be dissolved by mutual consent, or by a decree of the Court of Chancery in certain cases. In all cases it is dissolved by the bankruptcy, or death, of one of the partners. A partnership at will may be dissolved at any time at the pleasure of either party.

PRINCIPAL AND AGENT.

An agent is a person authorized to do some act or acts in the name of another, who is called his principal. Whatever a man has power to do in his own right, he may, except in one or two very peculiar cases, appoint an agent to do for him. An agent may be appointed by bare words, or such appointment may be inferred from the conduct of the supposed principal respecting him. There are, however, cases in which the nomination must be in writing, or even by deed. A mercantile agent (factor) is bound to keep the goods entrusted to him for sale with the same care with which a prudent man would keep his own. He is not liable in case of robbery, fire, or other accidental damage, happening without his default, unless previous to such damage he had committed some improper act. No agent can lawfully exceed his orders; if he do so his principal has a right to refuse the goods improperly purchased, but he must repudiate the transaction within a reasonable time. As far as the agent's authority extends, he has a right to bind his principal to third persons. The general rule is that the extent of the agent's authority is to be measured by the extent of his usual employment. A general agent is a person whom a man puts in his place to transact all business of a particular kind. The authority of such an agent to perform all things usual in the line of business in which he is employed cannot be limited by any private order or direction not known to the party dealing with him. But the reverse is the case concerning a particular agent, i.e., an agent employed specially in one single transaction. The general rule is that the authority of an agent, of whatever description, must be strictly observed, otherwise the principal, if his agent be a particular one, will not be bound, and if he be a general agent, will not be bound, save under certain circumstances, and not at all if the third party was, or ought to have been, at the time aware of the limited extent of the agent's authority. Payment, or tender of payment, to an agent in the course of his employment, is payment, or tender of payment, to the principal. It is a general rule of law that if a creditor employ an agent to receive money of a debtor, and the agent receives it, the debtor is discharged as against the principal; but if the agent, instead of receiving money, write off money due from him to the debtor, then the latter is not discharged. The employer is answerable for the negligence of his agent while engaged in his service, but not for his wilful and malicious trespass. In general he is not criminally responsible for the act of his agent unless he expressly commanded it.

PROMISSORY NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

A promissory note is a written promise to pay a certain sum of money unconditionally. A bill of exchange is a written order for the payment of a certain sum of money unconditionally. Although a promissory note in its original shape bears no resemblance to a bill, yet when endorsed it is exactly similar to one, for then it is an order by the endorser of the note upon the maker to pay to the indorsee. The endorser becomes, as it were, the drawer; the maker, the acceptor; and the indorsee the payee. An indorsement written on a note at the time of making it, rendering it payable only on certain conditions, renders it un-negotiable, and turns it into an agreement as between the parties privy to it. A written contemporaneous agreement by the payee with the makers and third persons, that payment shall be postponed, will not control the operation of a note. The name of the maker or drawer of a note must be inserted or subscribed by himself or his agent. A bill or note payable to bearer, or indorsed in blank, may be transferred by mere delivery; other bills and notes by the indorsement of the transferor's name on the instrument and delivery of it. A mistake in spelling the name of a person to whom a bill is specially indorsed, will not prevent that person from transferring it by the indorsement of his name properly spelled upon it. The party who endorses a bill or note thereby undertakes to the indorsee and every subsequent holder, that the bill or note shall be discharged by the drawee or maker when it becomes due. The transfer of a bill or note by mere delivery raises no such undertaking on the part of the transferor. An indorsement admits the ability and signature of every antecedent party. Every holder of a bill or note ought to present it in due time for acceptance, if necessary, and, in all cases, for payment, and to give notice, if it be dishonored, to every party who would be entitled to bring an action on it after paying it. If he fail in any of these particulars, such parties will be discharged. The maker, or acceptor, is not entitled to a presentment unless the instrument be either payable at sight, or be made payable at some particular place. Generally speaking, the presentment of a bill or note should be to the drawee, or maker; but if it be payable at a particular banker's, a presentment at that banker's is sufficient. If the maker or drawee be dead, the presentment must be to his personal representative. If he be absent, and the bill or note be made or accepted by an agent, to that agent. When a bill or note is refused acceptance or payment, notice of such refusal must immediately be given to every party to it, to whom the holder wishes to have recourse. If he have died, notice must be given to his representatives; if he have become a bankrupt, to his trustee. The notice involves two facts; 1st, that the bill has been duly presented, and, that it has not been paid. Though the drawer's signature to a bill or note be forged, the drawee, if he accepts the bill, is bound to pay it, provided it be in the hands of a holder, bona fide, and for value, for the drawee's acceptance admits the drawer's signature to be genuine. Contrary to this general rule a bill or note is always prima facie presumed to have been given for a sufficient consideration. This presumption is, however, open to rebuttal, and the defendant may show that he has received no consideration, or no sufficient consideration, and thus be relieved from the obligation in whole or in part.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

A lease for a term of less than three years may be either verbal or written. If for a longer period the agreement must be in writing. If the lease be for a definite time no notice of expiring or discontinuance is required. A monthly tenancy requires a month's notice of discontinuance; a weekly tenancy a week's notice; while a tenancy from year to year requires six month's notice. Unless expressly stipulated destruction by fire during the currency of a lease does not exempt the tenant from payment of rent. The tenant cannot compel the landlord to repair any defect apparent at the time the lease was made, but any defect in drainage, injurious to life or health, justifies a tenant in leaving.

ASSIGNMENT.

In the absence of an Insolvency Act, assignments are made to trustees for the benefit of creditors. The trustee is responsible for fraud or gross misconduct, and is bound to use ordinary prudence in the management of the estate in trust. His powers cannot exceed those of the debtor for whom he acts. Consequently he cannot set aside a preference given by debtor, but action can be entered by a creditor against any preference of a fraudulent character. The trustee may be empowered by debtor to carry on trade and may be compelled to give account of his management of estate.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

The servant is bound to obey all orders of his master which come within the scope of his employment. Any refusal to obey such orders justifies immediate dismissal. A servant is entitled to damages for wrongful dismissal, but can recover only amount of actual loss, any wages earned by him in the interim being deducted from total. The master may also recover damages to amount of actual loss through servant's desertion of employer. Both master and servant are entitled to reasonable notice before engagement can be terminated.

BILLS OF SALE AND CHATTEL MORTGAGES.

All sales and mortgages of personal property must be in writing, unless actual transfer takes place.

A MARRIED WOMAN

in Ontario is entitled to hold property free from control of her husband, or liabilities contracted by him. She cannot convey real estate without his concurrence. She can carry on business and sue or be sued on her own account. She is entitled to dower in all real estate owned by her husband during the marriage, or to which he may be entitled in Equity.

EXEMPTIONS FROM SEIZURE.

In Ontario the following articles of property are exempted from seizure under execution. Wearing apparel of debtor and family, bed and bedding in ordinary use, one stove and pipes, one crane, one pair hand-irons, one set cooking utensils, one pair tongs and shovel, one table, six chairs, six knives, six forks, six teacups, six saucers, one sugar basin, one milk jug, one teapot, six spoons, all spinning wheels and weaving looms in domestic use, ten vols. books, one axe, one saw, one gun, six traps and fishing net, and all necessary fuel and provisions for debtor and family for thirty days, and not to exceed $40 in value, one cow, four sheep, two hogs, and food for thirty days, tools or implements to the value of $60, all materials furnished to mechanics and workmen for construction of building under contract. Landlord has preferential claim for four weeks, if let by the week; for two terms, if let for periods less than a year, but in no case to exceed one year. If the debt was contracted for any of the identical articles enumerated, such articles are not exempt.

WILLS.

All that is necessary to the validity of a will is that it shall clearly express the intention of the testator, and be signed by him in the presence of two witnesses, who shall affix their names in his presence and that of each other. Bequests for charitable purposes must be paid out of personal property, not out of real estate, or personalty secured upon such estate.

REPLEVIN.

Goods wrongfully retained may be recovered by replevin, but plaintiff must give security to three times the value of the goods replevined, and at once proceed to prove his ownership.

PRESUMPTIONS IN LAW.

No engagement to do an impossibility, or in which the consideration is illegal, can be binding. The common impression that signatures in pencil are not good at law is incorrect.

ARREST FOR DEBT.

A man can be arrested for debt under existing laws in Ontario, only under a writ of habeas corpus issued on the ground that the debtor is about to leave the province with intent to defraud. A debtor cannot be imprisoned for debt, but one against whom judgment has been obtained, may be committed to jail by order of a judge until he makes satisfactory answers, or in default of making regular payments in accordance with order of Court.

HOLIDAYS.

The following are legal holidays in Ontario :—Sundays, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Whit-Monday, Christmas Day, the day appointed for the celebration of the Queen's Birthday, Dominion Day ; also any day appointed by proclamation for a public holiday or for a general fast or thanksgiving.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The rate of interest in Ontario is a subject of agreement. Any rate that may be contracted for is legal. Where interest is collectable and no rate has been agreed upon, the rate is fixed at six per cent. Interest cannot be collected upon open accounts unless agreement can be proved. Interest on bills and notes is reckoned from the day on which they fall due. Instalments paid are applied first in payment of interest. Compound interest can be collected only under special agreement.

Rule for Measuring the Capacity of a Square Cistern.

Multiply the length in feet by the width in feet, and multiply that by 1728, then divide by 231. The quotient will be the number of gallons capacity of one foot in depth.

Rule for Measuring the Capacity of a Circular Cistern.

Multiply the square of the diameter by .7854, or the square of the circumference by .07958, in order to find the area of the cistern, then multiply the area by the depth in inches, and divide the product by 231. The quotient will equal the number of gallons the cistern will contain.

In measuring cisterns, etc., 31½ gallons are estimated to one barrel; 63 gallons to one hogshead.

How to Measure Corn in Cribs when the Sides are Straight.

Multiply the length, breadth and height in inches together, and divide by 2,748, or the number of cubic inches in a bushel of ears. Take two-thirds of the quotient for the number of bushels of shelled corn.

When the Sides are Flaring.

Multiply half the sum of the top and bottom width, the perpendicular height, and the length, in inches, together, and divide the product as in the previous rule.

Antidotes for Poisons.

When the poison is unknown, give a prompt emetic of warm water and mustard, ipecac or salt water, and then give white of eggs freely, lard, olive or other bland oil, except in case of phosphorus poisoning. If the source of poisoning is known, the following treatment will be indicated:—

For Arsenic or White Precipitate.—Give a prompt emetic, followed by a mixture of chalk and castor oil, until sesquioxide of iron can be obtained from the druggist.

For Lead Poisoning, Corrosive Sublimate, Saltpetre, White Vitriol, Blue Vitriol, Vermillion.—A prompt emetic, followed by white of egg, and fresh milk, given freely.

For Lye Poisoning.—Give freely of oil or warm lard and white of egg, followed by warm water and mustard, or ipecac.

Nitrate of Silver, or Lunar Caustic.—Use moderately of strong solution of common salt, and then give freely of fresh milk.

For Strychnia and its Salts.—An emetic, followed by tannic acid and chlorine.

For Carbolic Acid.—Olive or castor oil, given freely.

For Ammonia, Caustic Soda, Caustic Potash.—Give oil freely; and afterward give water with vinegar or lemon juice in it.

For Opium, Laudanum, Morphine, Aconite, Belladonna, Digitalis.—A prompt emetic, followed by strong coffee; cold applications to shock the system. Lower the head to cause flow of blood to the brain: keep in motion.

A good emetic is one teaspoonful of salt mixed with one teaspoonful of mustard in a pint of warm water.

For eruptions caused by poison oak or ivy, the following prescription is most valuable. Have it filled at the druggist's:

R. Acid Carbolic.....half a drachm.
Ol. Sassafras and Ol. Junipereach one drachm.
Ung. Zinc Oxide (Benz.)one ounce.

Apply two or four times daily.

Hints for Housekeepers.

ANTS, RED.—Sprigs of winter-green or ground ivy will drive away red ants. Branches of wormwood will serve the same purpose for black ants. The insects may be kept out of sugar barrels by drawing a wide chalk mark around the top, near the edge.

BOOTS.—To make leather boots waterproof, saturate them with castor oil; to stop squeaking, drive a peg into the middle of the sole.

CLINKERS.—To remove clinkers from stoves or fire-brick, put in about half a peck of oyster shells on top of a bright fire. This may need repeating.

GREASE SPOTS.—To remove grease spots, thoroughly saturate with turpentine, place a soft blotting paper beneath and another on top of the spot, and press it hard. The fat is dissolved, then absorbed by the paper, and entirely removed from the cloth.

GILT FRAMES.—To restore gilt frames, rub with a sponge moistened in turpentine.

INK STAINS.—To remove stains of ink, wash carefully with pure water, and apply oxalic acid. If the latter changes the dye to a red tinge, restore the color with ammonia.

PAINT.—Chloroform will remove paint. When the color of a fabric has been destroyed by an acid, ammonia is applied to neutralize the same; after which an application of chloroform will, in almost all cases, restore the original color.

SILVERWARE.—To prevent articles of silverware from tarnishing, first wash them, and then paint them over with a thin solution of collodion in alcohol, using a wide, soft brush for the purpose.

STARCH.—To prevent starch from souring when boiled, add a little sulphate of copper.

FURNITURE, TO CLEAN.—First rub with cotton waste, dipped in boiled linseed oil; then rub clean and dry with a soft flannel cloth. Care should be taken that the oil is all removed.

EGG STAINS.—To remove from spoons, rub with common salt.

HAIR.—To clean hair, wash well with a mixture of soft water, 1 pint; sal-soda, 1 ounce; cream tartar, $\frac{1}{4}$ ounce.

CUTS.—A drop or two of creosote on a cut will stop its bleeding.

BITES AND STINGS OF INSECTS.—Wash with a solution of ammonia water.

BITES OF MAD DOGS.—Apply caustic potash at once to the wound, and give enough whiskey to cause sleep.

BURNS.—Make a paste of common baking soda and water, and apply it promptly to the burn. It will quickly check the pain and inflammation.

SCREW.—To remove an obdurate screw, apply a red-hot iron to the head for a short time, the screw-driver being applied immediately while the screw is hot.

FRUIT STAINS.—To remove the stains of acid fruit from the hands, wash your hands in clear water, dry slightly, and while yet moist, strike a match and hold your hands around the flame. The stains will immediately disappear.

IRON RUST.—To remove from muslin or white goods, thoroughly saturate the spots with lemon juice and salt, and expose to the sun. Usually more than one application is required. A good way to prevent its appearance on clothes is when washing to always have them inclosed in a muslin bag while being boiled.

DISINFECTION AND DISINFECTANTS.

(From Supplement to the Sanitary Journal.)

ABUNDANCE OF FRESH AIR is one of the best of disinfectants, especially if it contain ozone. It should by all means be let freely into sick rooms and, if possible, an open fire-place or some provision should be made for withdrawing the foul air. QUICK LIME wash for walls of cellars, outbuildings, stables and fences.

COPPERAS (sulphate of iron), 1 lb. to 2 lbs. to the gallon of water; for privy vaults and places from which collections of filth have been removed, or for throwing over filth or filthy soil.

CHLORIDE OF ZINC:—white vitriol (sulphate of zinc), 4 oz., common salt (Chloride of Sodium), 2 oz., water 1 gal.; used for drinking cups and other like utensils, to be well rinsed afterward in pure water.

CHLORINATED SODA (OR LIME) SOLUTION (liquor sodæ chlorinata), with five parts of soft water; for excreta, &c.

CORROSIVE SUBLIMATE (bichloride of mercury), from $\frac{1}{4}$ drachm to 1 oz. to the gallon of water, is a true and powerful disinfectant. It is very poisonous, and 1 drm. of permanganate of potash should be added to each gallon to give it color. Cost of each about 65 cents per lb. A Standard solution may be made of the full strength (1 oz. to 1 gal.) suitable for privy vaults, &c., and diluted as required. It must be kept in wooden or earthen vessels. For excreta, clothing, washing walls, wood work, &c.

DRY HEAT, of 230 Fah., in a suitable chamber, as an oven, for bedding and clothing which cannot be washed. The articles should be opened out well, as dry heat is not very penetrating.

MOIST HEAT is far more effective, and it has been demonstrated that "ten minutes exposure to steam, at a temperature of 230 Fah., will destroy all known disease germs, including the most refractory spores."

BOILING WATER, maintained at full boiling temperature for half an hour, it is said, will kill all known disease germs.

CARBOLIC ACID, 1 part by measure in 20 to 40 of water (mixing best with hot water) for wood-work, floors, about sinks, &c.; or used for scrubbing, as strong as the person using it can well work with.

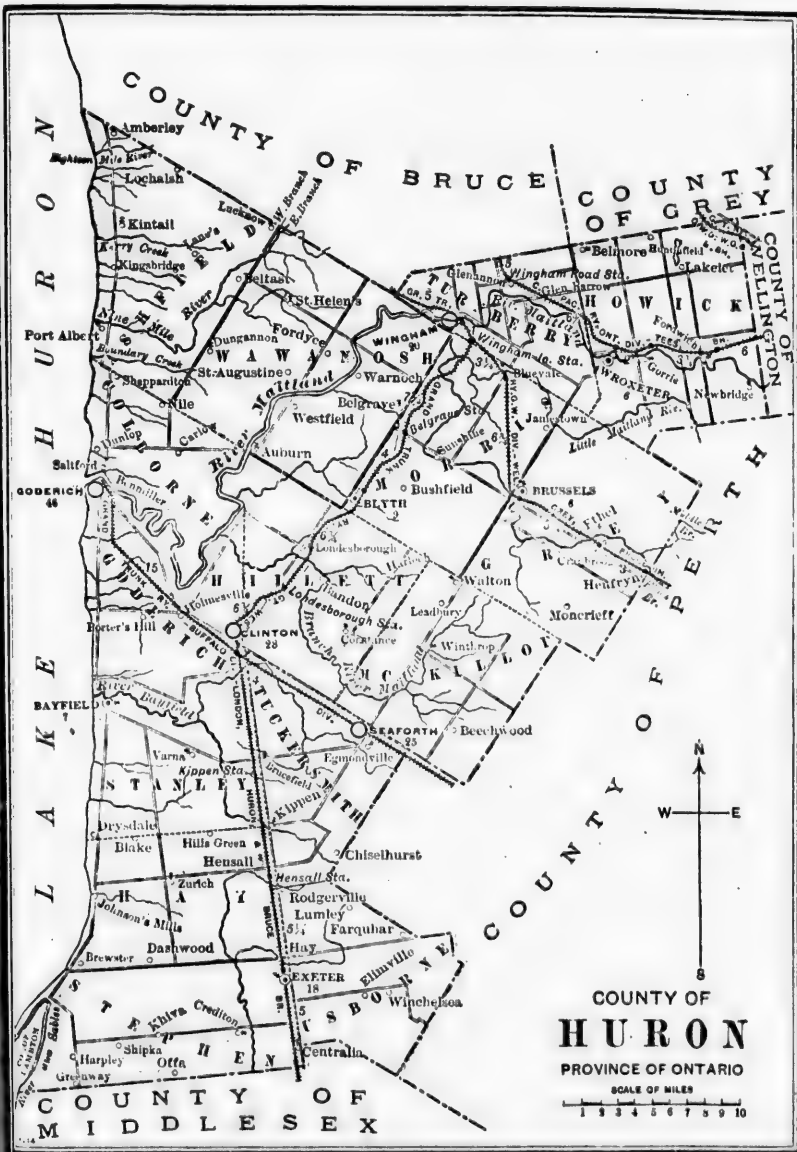

THYMO-CRESOL is a new non-poisonous substance, recently introduced into Canada from England. It is being extensively used it appears in the United States for public disinfecting purposes, and is highly spoken of for destroying foul odors.

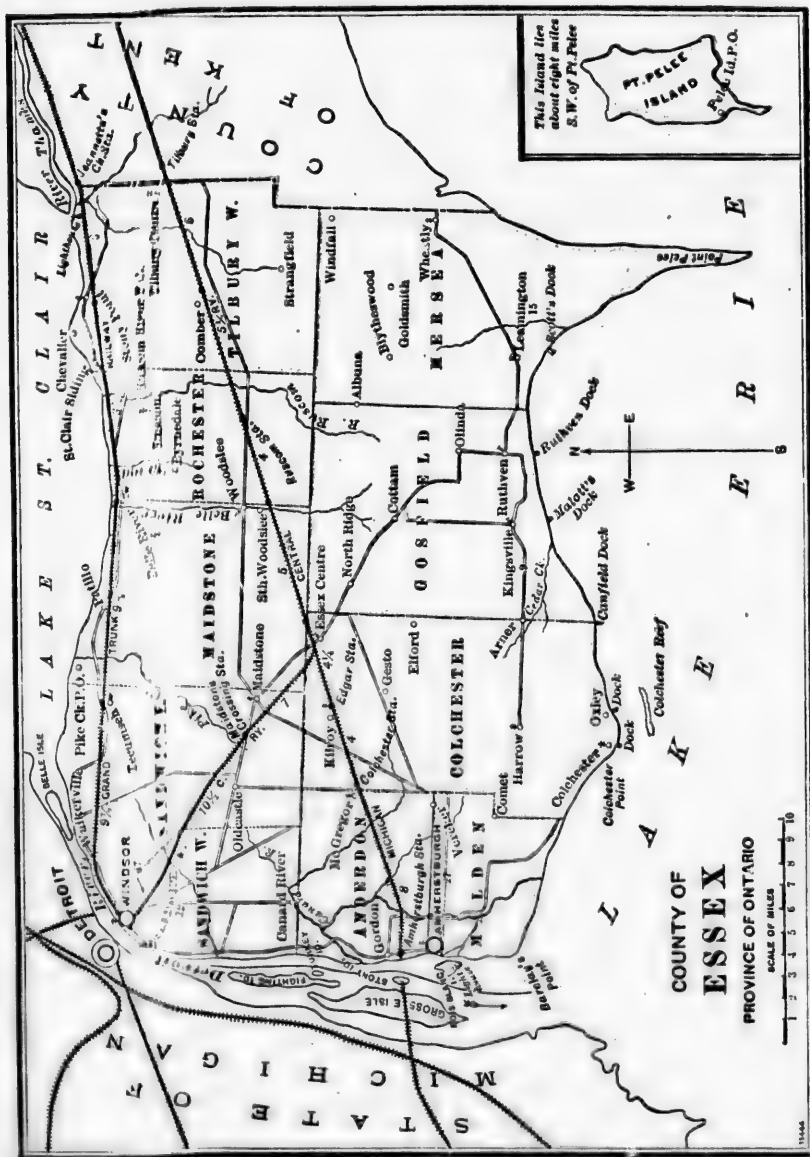

Some practical sanitarians think stronger chemical agents should be used; that specific excreta, for example, should be cast into undiluted, crude carbolic acid, which contains from 25 to 50 per cent. of pure acid. The disinfectant cannot be too strong for all such purposes, and it is really only a matter of costs.

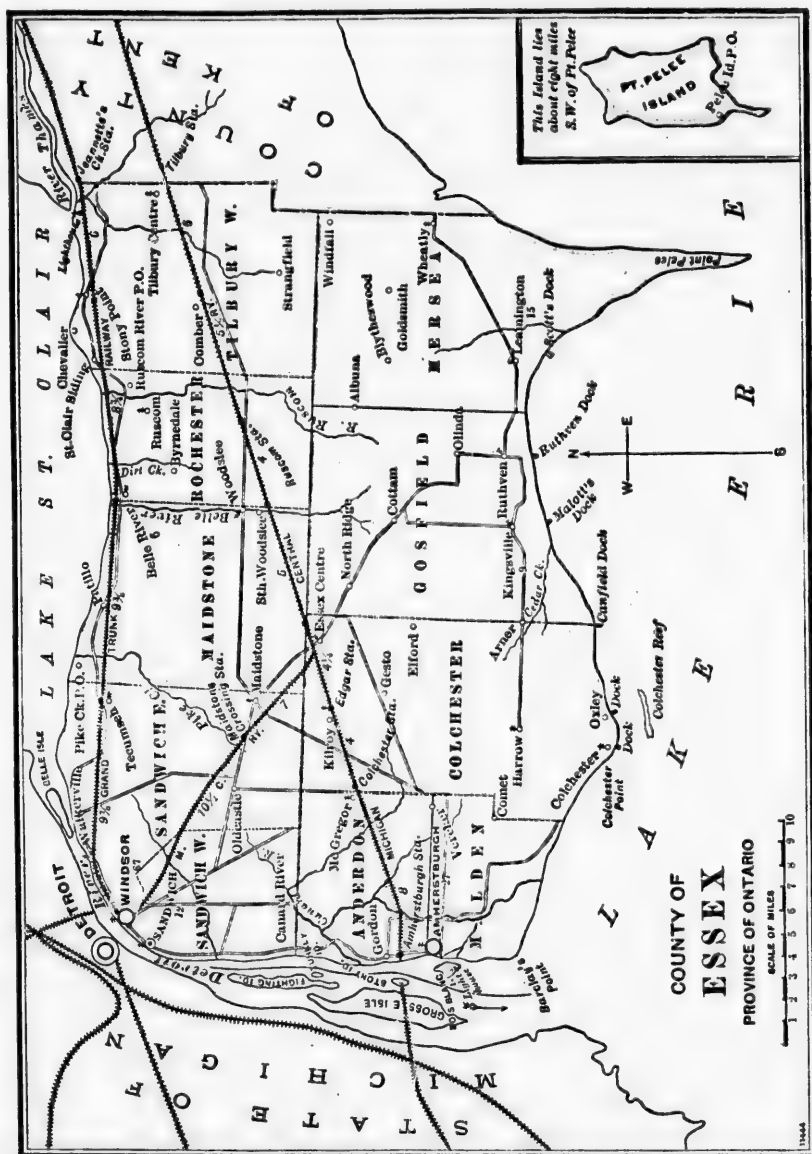

SULPHUR FUMES (Sulphurous Acid), produced by burning sulphur, constitute one of the best disinfectants, as it is the oldest known. For disinfecting a room and its contents, about $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. of sulphur should be used for every cubic yard of space, or about 5 lbs. to an ordinary room of only a floor-surface about 12 feet square. Less than this is recommended sometimes, but it is better to use it in abundance. Everything in the room should be left in position, excepting such things as can be placed in a strong disinfectant solution. Metallic substances may be protected by a coating of oil. Bleaching must be expected. Moisture greatly facilitates the action of the fumes, and the floor and wood work should first be washed freely. Put the sulphur, in powder or small fragments, with enough alcohol or coal oil to ignite it, in a metallic dish, over another larger one containing wet sand or water. The person igniting the sulphur should be careful not to inhale the flames. The room should then be kept very tightly closed for 24 hours. Be sure that the sulphur burns completely.
